

BRITISH CROP PROTECTION COUNCIL

PROCEEDINGS OF A SYMPOSIUM
ON AQUATIC HERBICIDES

5th - 7th January 1976

Held at St. Hilda's College,
Oxford, England

Edited by T O Robson & J H Fearon

CONTENTS

Symposium Programme Committee	iii
Abbreviated titles of organizations mentioned in the text	iv
Preface	vii
SESSION I: Chairman: Mr. D. RIDDINGTON, Association of Drainage Authorities
Aquatic plants in Britain - their occurrence and significance as weeds T.O. ROBSON	1
Land Drainage and weed control W.D. MILES	7
Aspects of weed control in a water supply reservoir with amenity uses R.W. DUNN	14
Discussion on Session I.	19
SESSION II: Chairman: Dr. H.C. GOUGH, MAFF, Agricultural Development and Advisory Service
Industry's contribution - the responsibilities and commitments of the chemical manufacturer C.S. MAJOR	22
Pesticides Safety Precautions Scheme - the registration of aquatic herbicides J.A.R. BATES	26
The approval, efficiency and recommendations for use of aquatic herbicides R.J. MAKEPEACE	38
Discussion on Session II	46
SESSION III: Chairman: Dr. N.W. MOORE, Nature Conservancy Council
Some problems arising from the practical use of aquatic herbicides. D.R.H. PRICE	51
Effects of aquatic herbicides on fisheries T.E. TOOBY	62

Environmental effects of aquatic herbicides C. NEWBOLD	78
Mechanical methods of weed control in watercourses - an ecologist's view M. GEORGE	91
Discussion on Session III	100
SESSION IV: Chairman: Prof. L. BROADBENT University of Bath
Summary of Symposium and recommended action J.D. FRYER	107
List of delegates	110